Now mother dozed before the fire,
My Dad his pipe was smoking;
I dare not for the world retire —
Now was not that provoking?
At last the old folks fell asleep,
I flew my promised word to keep,
But he his absence to denote
Had on the window shutter wrote:
Remember Love remember!

3.

Well did I heed a hint so sweet
Oh yes but mark the warning,
Which meant at church we were to meet
At Ten o'clock next morning.
And there we met no more to part,
To twine together hand and heart,
And since that day in wedlock join'd
The window shutter brings to mind:
Remember Love remember!
